GRADUATION FAREWELL

1ST. VERSE

For many a day, O comrades dear,
With many a hope and oft a fear,
Together we in a friendly band,
Have toiled with busy mind and hand.

Chorus

The time has come to say farewell,
Now to say fare-well. The time—
The time has come to say fare-well.
The time has come to say farewell, farewell.

2ND. VERSE

Oh, mem'ries of busy hours we spent,
As daily above our tasks we bent,
And merry moments, bright with play,
Are blent in fragrance here to-day.

House of Grace Coolidge

The former House of Ralph Waldo Emerson is now known as the House of Grace Coolidge. The change in name is due to the fact that its members are all girls now and that the girls felt that they should select the name of some outstanding woman.

The new name having been decided upon, a letter was sent to Mrs. Coolidge asking her to suggest house colors and a house motto. In a cordial reply Mrs. Coolidge suggested the colors green and gold and as a motto the following: "Not in rewards, but in the strength to strive, the blessing lies." Both of these suggestions were unanimously accepted.

Although all the members of the House of Grace Coolidge may not become the First Lady of the Land, yet they may all emulate the graciousness of manner and high womanliness of her for whom their house has been named.

Synopsis

The story opens in Venice. The Contadine are weaving garlands for their favorite gondoliers. Marco and Giuseppe who, blindfolded, secure Tessa and Gianetta for their brides. As they dance off a gondola arrives with the Spanish Duke, Duchess Casilda and Luiz to have audience with the Grand Inquisitor. Casilda is told she was married when an infant to the infant son of the King of Barataria who, when a child, was stolen and taken to Venice. The Inquisitor announces that the husband is a gondolier—and meeting Marco and Giuseppe decides that one or the other of them is the new King. In the meantime he sends for the old nurse who can settle the matter.

In the second act the two gondoliers are in Barataria, reigning jointly, also much distressed because of the loss of their wives, when the Contadine arrive with Tessa and Giannetta. They are invited to a banquet and ball, but the Grand Inquisitor interrupts to say the Duke, Duchess and Casilda have arrived. The nurse is brought in and declares—the real King.

Honor Banquet

ON the evening of May 23, 1929, Southeastern High School held its annual Honor Banquet. This proved to be one of the most successful and best attended social affairs which has ever taken place at the school. Our principal, William R. Stocking, acted as toastmaster. In addition to the chief address of the evening, which was delivered by Miss Lucy Elliott, of the Sherard Intermediate School, several short talks were given by students. The following people were invited because of excellent scholarship, perfect attendance, musical ability, debating, or for some other outstanding achievement:

Edward Ackerman, Dorothy Allen, Edna Bailey, Ruth Beck, Margaret Bell, Christine Bowron, Marie Bush, Ben Cannon, Evelyn Clark, Sam Cohen, Sara Comins, Frank Cookson, Eileen Corrick, Eleanor Devlin, John Dobovan, Douglas Dorman, Mabel Edstrom, Joseph Faust, Maxine Fisher, Hulda Fornell, Gail Foster, Marian Gallagher, Doris Gallagher, Alice Geib, Florence Gershan, Virginia Gilmartin, Sylvia Greene, Vivian Groves, Elden Jay, George Katz, Betty Kirchner, Mignon Kling, Anna Koss, Harvey Kuffert, Ruth La Chapelle, Fred Laughna, Aili Lindfors, Emma Mann, Sara Markwick, Gertrude Mays, Francis McCracken, Walter Messing, Robert Miesel, Irmagard Millat, Yvonne Mitchell, Elizabeth Mittlestaedt, Winfield Mudge, Edward Neis, William Parfitt, Louise Pierson, Albert Rashid, Oliver Rosemund, Walter Rudick, Helen Sackett, David Saulson, Betty Scott, Robert Smith, Helen Spring, Gladys Stanlake, William Stocking, Fred Stocking, Gerald Stoetzer, Stella Strelbitzky, Paul Swift, Jason Tickton, Miriam Tickton, Violet Trais, Harvey Van Buhler, Edwin Zimmerman.

The alumni body was represented by Helen Cole, Miralda Proefke, and Freeman Floyd.

Aryan Banquet—June 21, 1929

THE annual Aryan Banquet, a very successful affair, was held on June 21, 1929. As a banquet had proved impossible in 1928, Aryan pins were presented to the Senior members of both the '28 and '29 Staffs. The 1928 publication was represented by William Seeley, Phyllis Parsonson, Richard Jones, Clarence Dunneback, Mary Hanson, Margaret Lewis, Irving Reamer, William Williams, and Violet Hackim.

The following members of the 1929 Staff also received pins:

Scholarship Won by Herminia Auner

HERMINIA AUNER'S essay on "Aviation as a Business" was selected as one of the five best written by any twelfth grade student attending a Detroit high school during the year ending June, 1929. As a result, Herminia was presented with a scholarship which provided her tuition for four years at any college she chose to attend. She selected the College of the City of Detroit.

Remarkable Record of Southeastern Alumnus

WILLIAM PARFITT, popular graduate of Southeastern, attained an unusual achievement by receiving the highest mark ever made in the psychological examination given to Freshmen at the College of the City of Detroit. His score was 281 out of a possible 370.

Hoover Visits Detroit—October 28, 1929

PRESIDENT HOOVER visited Detroit in order to assist in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the invention of the electric light. School was dismissed for a half day so that the students might have an opportunity to see the president. Unfortunately, the rain made the holiday rather less pleasant than it might have been.

National Scholastic Press Association Holds Convention

ROBERT SMITH, editor-in-chief of the Aryan; Winfield Mudge, editor-in-chief of the Jungaleer; Marion Dresser, news editor of the Jungaleer; Jack Briner, of the Jungaleer Staff, and Mr. Wilfred Myll, faculty advisor of the Jungaleer, represented Southeastern at the annual convention held in Chicago by the National Scholastic Press Association. In addition to the principal address given by Zona Gale, the representatives attended various lectures and round table discussions from which they derived many interesting and novel ideas.

Maybee Clean-Up Campaign

A CLEAN-UP campaign was sponsored by the Maybee Club which was organized in September. There was an immediate improvement in conditions, and it would be for the general welfare of the school if succeeding clubs would engage in similar activities.

Reforestation Project

UNDER the leadership of the Biology Club, Southeastern High School paid for the planting of forty acres of pine in accordance with the system devised by the Detroit News. Money for this project was provided by the Biology Club, assisted by the Southeastern Girls' Club, Archons Club, and the Maybee Club.

Michigan J-Hop Led by Southeastern Alumna

MISS JOSSELYN McLEAN, formerly a student at Southeastern and leading lady in the Senior Play of the class of January, 1928, led the annual J-Hop at the University of Michigan on February 14, 1930. Her partner was Mr. Francis Beebe, of Buffalo, New York. Miss McLean later attended the house party given by the Sigma Phi Fraternity.

Senior Play, January

THE January graduating class presented "The Goose Hangs High" as its class play. The mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, were played by Dorothy Wurm and Walter Rudick. The twins were played by Cyril Carter and Dorothy Roszel; the older brother, Hugh, by Merle Sullivan and his sweetheart, Dagmar, by Madelen Steensma. Gwen Hardy was amusing as the domineering old grandmother.

Open Night, May 8, 1930

SOUTHEASTERN HIGH SCHOOL entertained its friends at a Community Night on May 8. At 6:00 P. M. a banquet was given for Mr. Cody, our superintendent, Mr. Miller, our assistant superintendent, other members of the Board of Education, and Southeastern's faculty as well as some of the parents. Later the entire school was open to afford an opportunity for the guests to inspect the new building. The various departments exhibited their work at this time. These exhibits included music and plays in the auditorium, athletic events in the gymnasiums and swimming pool, and scientific displays in the laboratories.

Senior Play, June

THE June Class presented as its play, the amusing English comedy, "So This is London." The leads, Eleanor and Junior, were played by Shirley Cobean and Eldred Monticello. The girl's parents were portrayed by Platonia Pappas and Meredith Alair; the boy's, by Wilma Pierson and Ed Lennard. Hope Barnhart was prominent in the play as an English noblewoman, Lady Ducksworth.

Release of the Aryan

ON Monday, June 2, the Aryan was released. Our year book this year is something of an innovation as it contains pictures and features which make it more of a souvenir than is the traditional annual.

Senior Meeting

Senior meeting. Muffled murmer—
Undertone is growing firmer;
Talk subdued but getting stronger—
Calls and outcries echo longer;
Senior voices slowly rising,
Vocal power is quite surprising.
Brazen throats begin to shout—
What's the clamor all about?
All is hubbub, uproar, noise—
Shrieking girls and brass-lunged boys—
Turbulance and agitation—
Tumult, brawl, vociferation—
Savage din—a riot heating,
Raving madness—Senior meeting.

—Lillian Jackson.

Evolution

One fellow who is sure that men came from monkeys is the man who sweeps up the peanut shells after the ball game.

He (at a big party): "I made an awful mistake just now. I told a man I thought the host was a stingy old blighter, and it happened to be the host that I spoke to."
She: "Oh! you mean my husband?"

Mother: "Harold wired for a hundred dollars."
Father: "Good, I was beginning to worry about him."

Pat: "Have ye named your baby yet?"
Mike: "We have."
Pat: "On' phwat did ye call it?"
Mike: "Hazel."
Pat: "Wurra! Glorry be, an' 223 saints to name yer baby after an' ye had t' go an' name it after a nut!"

English Teacher: "What are the degrees of comparison of the adjective 'sick'?"
Freshie: "Sick, worse, and dead."

In Her Property

The small boy's head bobbed up over the garden wall, and a meek little voice asked: "Please, Miss Jones, may I have my arrow?"
"Yes, dear, certainly," the next-door neighbor answered. "Where did it fall?"
"I fink," was the reply, "it's stuck in your cat."

A young Swede appeared at the country judge's office and asked for a license.
"What kind of a license?" asked the judge. "A hunting license?"
"No," was the answer, "Aye tank aye bane hunting long enough. Aye want a marriage license."

Prof. in Psychology class: "What do you associate with the word 'mutton'?"
Tom: "Jeff."

The Pioneer

"The boy stood on the burning deck. . ."
How often have we said it!
But may I add
The famous lad
Deserved a lot of credit?
He did a lot—that red-hot tot—
He coined a phrase, in sooth,
For though the sheiks and shebas reign
These latter days, it's very plain
That he forever will remain
The foremost Flaming Youth!

—Arthur L. Lippmann.

The Opportunist

It was the first real snowstorm of the year and the teacher felt it her duty to warn her pupils before she dismissed them.

"Boys and girls should be very careful to avoid colds at this time of year," she began solemnly. "I had a darling little brother only seven years old. One day he went out in the snow with his new sled and caught cold. Pneumonia set in and in three days he was dead."

The schoolroom was so quiet you could hear a pin drop. Then a youngster in the back row asked: "Where's his sled?"

Well, You Know How It Is

"There's a chance for you to deliver your lecture How to Bend Others to Your Will, over at Goofport. Can I book you for it?"

"Why, yes—that is, if my wife has no objections."

She Had No Alternative

He: Would you rather take lunch with me tomorrow or dinner Thursday night?

She: Well, I'll take lunch with you tomorrow and we can talk about going to dinner on Thursday then.

He (with great dignity): "Then this is absolutely final?"
Co-ed: "Absolutely. Shall I return your letters?"
He: "Yes, please. I think they are good enough to use again."

"Iceland," said the teacher, "is about as large as Siam."
"Iceland," wrote Willie afterwards, "is about as large as teacher."

Teacher: "What is the interest on a thousand dollars for two years at 2 per cent? Abe, pay attention!"
Abe: "For 2 per cent, teacher, I ain't interested."

Prof. of Literature: "You take Jane Austen, for example."
Student: "You take her, Professor. I gotta girl."

We'd print some more jokes, but what's the use. You'd only laugh at them.

OFFICE EMPLOYMENT

is congenial. It is well paid at the start and it affords excellent opportunities for advancement to those who are thoroughly qualified. You can qualify for a good position in our Day or Evening School.

Complete high school and a college course if you can. But include, by all means, practical training in accounting, shorthand, stenotypy, bookkeeping, typewriting or calculator that will enable you to answer the question, "WHAT CAN YOU DO?

Many college graduates have difficulty in finding employment because they cannot answer this question satisfactorily.

The TRAINING of JUNIOR EXECUTIVES

A Prominent Business Man Says:

"Our business is expanding so rapidly that we have imperative need for several junior executives, but we simply can't find young men and women with the proper training. We can get plenty of stenographers and bookkeepers—capable ones, too. They are all right for the work for which they have been trained, but they do not understand organization and management, and their limited education makes it impossible for them to assume executive duties.

"Nowadays when an executive engages an assistant he knows that soon he shall have a better position at a larger salary, and he wants the young person he selects to be ready for that better position when it develops. He is looking around and considering his future requirements. Consequently, he exercises the greatest care in choosing young men and women for his organization, knowing that they will develop into the executives of the future.

"A fundamental knowledge of business principles and administrative methods has become the key which unlocks the door to the choicest opportunities, and the commercial training institution giving executive courses of university grade in Business Administration is the logical place for such training. There the science of business is stripped of all its frills and furbelows and taught in a practical, business-like way by practical business men and women.

"The young man or woman who takes an executive course at such an institution will enter the business world with a thorough knowledge of business fundamentals and a clear understanding of the administrative duties of a successful organization. He will be a potential executive, and will have responsibilities, opportunities and promotion thrust upon him."

Geese

Geese is a low, heavy set bird which is most meat and feathers. His head sits on one end and he sits on the other. Geese can't sing much on account of the dampness of the moisture. He ain't got no between-his-toes and he's got a balloon in his stummick to keep him from sinking. Some geese when they get big has curls on their tails and is called ganders. Ganders don't haff to sit and hatch but just eat and loaf and go swimming. If I was a goose I'd rather be a gander.

Sandy bought two tickets for a raffle and won a $1,500 car.
